DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, the predetermined interval of spacing between the winding disks must be shown or the feature(s) canceled from the claim(s). No new matter should be entered.

Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

The drawings are objected to as failing to comply with 37 CFR 1.84(p)(5) because they do not include the following reference sign(s) mentioned in the description: d (page 8, line 4). Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

The drawings are objected to as failing to comply with 37 CFR 1.84(p)(5) because they include the following reference character(s) not mentioned in the description: Center (Figure 3). Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d), or amendment to the specification to add the reference character(s) in the description in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(b) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Specification

The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities: On page 11, line 10, "wining" should be winding.

Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claim 1 and 4-5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Horneman in view of Koschatzky. Regarding Claim 1, Horneman teaches an apparatus for winding an optical fiber in the form of a quadrupole for forming a sensor coil of a fiber optic gyroscope, comprising a center shaft 47A supported by a pair of support means 28A and 28 B; a cylindrical spool 40. Horneman is silent about a pair of winding disks and pair of reels detachably mounted to the surfaces of the winding disks (Figure 4). However, Koschatzky discloses a pair of winding disks 10 and a pair of reels 15 detachably mounted to the front surface of the winding disks (Figure 1). Therefore, it would have obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to add the winding disks with reels detachably mounted to wind half the fiber followed by the other half and to be able to reload the reels easily by detaching them.

Regarding Claim 3, Horneman in view of Koschatzky discloses an apparatus for winding an optical fiber as discussed above in regards to Claim 1. Horneman is silent about a pair of balancing members positioned opposite the reels. However, Koschatzky discloses a pair of balancing members 13 opposite the reels. Therefore, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to add Koschatzky's balancing members to the winding disks of Horneman in view of Koschatzky to maintain the stability of the winding disks as they rotate during normal operations.

Regarding Claim 4, Horneman discloses the driving mechanisms for rotating the winding disks in the support members 28A and 28B (Figure 4).

Claim 2 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Horneman in view of Koschatzky as applied to claim 1 above, and further in view of Baron. Horneman in view of Koschatzky discloses an apparatus for winding an optical fiber as discussed above in regards to Claim 1. Horneman in view of Koschatzky is silent about inclined projections formed at both ends of the spool. However, Baron discloses a spool with inclined projections at each end (Figure 4a). Therefore, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to use the inclined projections of Baron on the spool of Horneman in view of Koschatzky to delimit the winding range of the optical fiber.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claim 5-7 allowed.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Negishi is cited for disclosing a method of manufacturing a fiber optic coil. Henderson is cited for disclosing a robotic fiber optic quadrupole coil winder.
